General service terms | Cross-border parcels and pallets

1. SCOPE

These service terms ("the Terms") apply to services that Posten Bring AS, org.nr 984661185 ("Bring"), provides for contract customer ("the Customer"), jointly "the Parties". The Terms are valid for cross-border shipments from Norway to abroad and return shipments.

The latest version of this document shall always apply and is available at bring.no/en/terms-and-conditions.

2. PRICES AND FEES

The Customer shall pay prices and fees as agreed. If there are no specially agreed prices, Bring's standard prices and price lists in effect at the time, shall apply. Bring has the right, in addition to the freight price, to charge fuel surcharges and sulphur surcharges, and to adjust these surcharges continuously without prior notice to the Customer. Current standard price lists and applicable fees and surcharges are available on bring.no/en/prices. All prices are stated exclusive of VAT.

Bring reserves the right to apply seasonal surcharges during certain periods, for example in cases of increased volume or limited transport capacity. Details regarding seasonal surcharges and their rate will be published at bring.no/en/prices at least 30 days before the entry into force.

3. ORDER AND EDI

All shipments shall be notified to Bring in advance via EDI transfer. The Customer is responsible for ensuring that complete EDI information, according to Bring's applicable requirements and specifications at the time, is available to Bring before collection or drop-off, see developer.bring.com.

The Customer is responsible for any third party or agent that the Customer engages to send EDI transfers to Bring. In the event of delayed, incorrect or missing EDI information, Bring has the right to charge surcharges.

4. PACKAGING

The Customer is responsible for ensuring that shipments are packed to withstand normal transport handling, including reloading and sorting. Bring does not accept unpackaged goods. Sufficient packaging is a prerequisite for compensation to be paid in the event of depreciation or damage.

The packaging must be undamaged and ensure that neither the Customer's nor other goods are damaged. Goods loaded onto pallets must fit within the pallet edge and be packed in a way that keeps them stable and together throughout the transport. Liquid contents and powder must be packed so that any leakage remains within the outer packaging if the inner packaging is damaged.

For goods loaded onto pallets, the load carrier (the pallet) is considered part of the transport packaging. Bring does not offer pallet exchange and normally does not return pallets.

5. MARKING AND DOCUMENTS

The Customer is responsible for ensuring that shipments have sufficient documentation and labelling for the assignment to be carried out. A transport label, legible both by machine and manually, must be attached clearly visible on each parcel and pallet. Labelling of shipments must comply with Bring's applicable requirements and specifications, see developer.bring.com.

Bulk shipments and pallet shipments must be supplemented with routing label and CMR and/or Waybill. For bulk shipments consisting of multiple pallets, each pallet must be labelled and numbered, e.g., 1/3, 2/3, 3/3, and so on.

Shipments sent across a customs border must be supplemented with complete customs documents. Two copies of the commercial or proforma invoice must be included per parcel, pallet or bulk split batch. To obtain fast-track clearance (simplified customs), the country of origin for EU/EEA goods must be documented.

6. SHIPMENT AND CONTENTS

The Customer is responsible for ensuring that shipments and their contents do not conflict with the Terms or trade restrictions, laws and regulations at any time. Bring has no obligation to investigate the contents, documentation or packaging. The Customer must compensate Bring and other injured parties for damage that occurs due to the Customer violating the Terms.

6.1 Dangerous goods

Dangerous goods may not be sent with Bring, except for limited quantities of dangerous goods, which are permitted for certain services and destinations.

For what is defined as dangerous goods, please refer to The Norwegian Directorate for Civil Protection, see dsb.no.

6.2 Prohibited content

Shipments may not contain:

- Valuable documents and securities, including banknotes and money
- Valuables, e.g., precious metals, gemstones, real pearls, exclusive watches, antiques, or the like
- Tobacco and nicotine products, including snus, nicotine pouches, cigarettes, electronic cigarettes and refill containers, or the like
- Weapon and parts of weapons, according to applicable law and classification in the customs tariff, or ammunition
- Human remains, body parts, organs, and urns or similar containing ash
- Living or dead animals
- Temperature sensitive goods, e.g., plants, perishables, or other items that require specific temperature conditions
- Biological substances category B (UN 3373) and diagnostic samples that are not packaged and marked in accordance with the IATA instructions
- Content that is prohibited by law to handle or transport

6.3 Content that requires a specific written agreement with Bring

- Alcoholic beverages
- Tires for motor vehicles

6.4 Maximum permitted value

Shipments must not contain goods with a value exceeding NOK 100,000 per parcel and NOK 1,000,000 per pallet.

7. PICKUP

Pickup arrangements are made on a customer-specific basis, with details agreed upon with the Customer for the duration of the agreement.

8. DELIVERY

Delivery is made to the specified delivery address, provided that the transport route consists of a passable road. The Swedish Road Ferries, part of the Swedish Transport Administration, are considered a passable road. Shipments to islands without a road bridge connection are normally delivered to the harbour office or quay.

8.1 Unattended delivery

For certain services, delivery may take place as unattended delivery, either as part of the service's standard offering or following an active choice by the sender or recipient. When delivery is carried out as unattended delivery, the shipment is left at the delivery location without personal handover, signature, or other physical acknowledgment of receipt.

Unattended delivery is deemed to be initiated by the party that has chosen the delivery method, or that has ordered a service where unattended delivery is included as standard. The initiating party is responsible for ensuring that the delivery location is suitable for unattended delivery. Bring may, at the time of delivery, assess whether unattended delivery can be carried out. If the location is not considered accessible, suitable, or safe, Bring may refrain from unattended delivery and instead deliver in accordance with the terms otherwise applicable to the service.

Unattended delivery is considered completed when the shipment has been left at the delivery location. Registration in Bring's systems, including information about time of delivery and the delivery event, constitutes sufficient proof of completed delivery. Bring may also document the delivery by photograph.

Once delivery has been completed, the risk for the shipment passes to the party that has initiated unattended delivery. The shipment and its packaging are deemed to have been in visibly good condition at the time of delivery, unless otherwise shown by Bring's documentation or otherwise proven. Bring is not liable for loss or damage occurring after delivery.

9. RECIPIENT-SELECTED DELIVERY CHOICES

For certain services, Bring may offer the recipient alternative delivery options, allowing the recipient to adjust the delivery. Examples include redirection to another delivery location, extended holding time, unattended delivery, or delivery within a specific time window.

Recipient-selected delivery choices are carried out only after the recipient has actively made a choice or order and accepted the terms for the selected option. Some delivery choices are executed only after Bring has received payment from the recipient.

Depending on the service and delivery choice, the Customer may, by booking additional services, influence which options are offered to the recipient.

10. SPECIAL HANDLING

Bring reserves the right to charge fees for special handling for shipments that cannot be handled or sorted according to standard procedures. This may include parcels where the longest side (length) exceeds 120 cm or where two sides each exceed 60 cm, shipments with irregular shapes, rolls, tubes, or similar, and shipments without proper packaging.

11. TRACKING OF SHIPMENTS

Tracking of shipments is available through Bring's digital solutions, Bring's app, and in some cases through external partner's solutions. Tracking normally begins at the shipment's first scanning point and continues through to handover or delivery. For individually sent shipments (single parcels or pallets), the first scan is normally performed at pickup or drop-off. For parcels sent as bulk shipment, the first scan of each parcel normally takes place after split of the bulk shipment, at the sorting terminal to which the bulk shipment is routed/addressed.

12. LIABILITY

Liability is governed by NSAB 2015. Bring's responsibility for shipments begins when the shipment is received by Bring and ends when it has been delivered to the specified delivery address or to another location agreed with the sender or recipient. Delivery does not necessarily have to be made to the recipient personally.

For shipments delivered via a service point, Bring's responsibility ends upon handover. For shipments delivered via parcel locker, the responsibility ends when the shipment is collected from the locker.

For bulk shipments, where multiple parcels are transported together on a pallet, Bring's responsibility for the pallet begins when it is received by Bring. The responsibility for each individual parcel only begins once the pallet has been split and the parcels registered in the sorting system, enabling tracking and handling at unit/parcel level.

Cross-border parcels and pallets do not have any form of time guarantee. The Customer is responsible to obtain and pay for insurance as specified in §25 A., NSAB 2015. Bring shall in no case be liable for any indirect or other consequential loss or damage.

For bulk return shipments, the conversion factor is determined on a customer-specific basis.

4. BOOKING AND MARKING/LABELING

The Customer creates and transmits EDI via Mybring or another system approved by Bring, either in advance or when the return need arises. Pickup is normally booked via Mybring. If standard booking is not possible, Bring's customer service in the country from which the return is being sent can assist with EDI and booking for an extra fee.

Each shipment must be provided with complete shipping documentation. The Customer is responsible for providing the return sender with the shipping label, either in advance or when the need for return arises. The validity period for a produced return label is 90 days.

For returns sent across a customs border, Bring performs customs declaration based on the attached customs documents. If the Customer can prove the return and present an export invoice with date/customs ID, there is a possibility for a VAT-free return.

5. PICKUP

Pickup is included in the shipping price, if it is booked via Mybring, and carried out on non-holiday weekdays during daytime hours. Someone must be present at the time of pickup for physical handover of the shipment.

5.1 Unsuccessful pickup

Selection of a service point via lookup in the Bring's database through API.

1.2 Pickup Locker (0011)

Selection of a parcel locker via lookup in the Bring's database through API.

1.6 ID Verification Parcel Locker (1395)

BankID verification is required for collection via parcel locker in Sweden.

1.7 Flex Delivery (0041)

By ordering the additional service, it is accepted that the shipment may be delivered in this manner. The additional service is subject to Bring's general service terms for unattended delivery.

1.8 Delivery Indoors (0039)

Carry-in to a specified location according to the instructions in the EDI. Delivery is made to one single location, regardless of the number of parcels. The maximum weight per parcel is 35 kg.

The recipient must ensure clear access for delivery and is responsible for protecting any sensitive flooring. For deliveries from the fourth floor or higher, an elevator is required. If the conditions are not met, delivery will be made without carrying the shipment in. Any additional delivery attempt will also be made without carry-in.

For Business Pallet, the additional service means that the pallet is split, and each parcel is carried indoors to the specified location. The pallet and its packaging are removed for recycling or disposal.

1.9 Telephone Notification (1149)

The recipient is contacted by phone prior to delivery. In Sweden and Denmark, contact is made approximately 30-60 minutes before the estimated time of arrival at the delivery address. In Finland, the recipient is contacted either before the start of the delivery route or at least one (1) hour prior to the estimated time of arrival. Delivery will be attempted even if the recipient cannot be reached. Any additional delivery attempt will be made without telephone notification.
